Call for parents and children to come to the front
Pastor: “Psalms 127 says that children are a blessing from the Lord. It’s exciting whenever a new child enters a family. There’s no greater moment than when parents sense that their children are a gift from God. Dedicating a child acknowledges God’s sovereignty not only over the child, but also over Mom and Dad. Parents present their child before God and His people asking for grace and wisdom in carrying out their responsibilities.”

“_________ and __________, by coming forward, do you hereby declare your desire to dedicate yourself and your baby to Jesus Christ?”
Parents: “We do.”

Pastor: “Deuteronomy ch. 6 gives us the ingredients for a godly home. (Read v.4-7).

_________ and __________, do you promise to love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your might?”
Parents: “We do.”

Pastor: “Do you promise to learn God’s Word so that it will be in your heart?”
Parents: “We do.”

Pastor: “Do you promise to teach God’s Word diligently to your children?”
Parents: “We do.”

Pastor: “I want to ask the grandparents to stand.
Proverbs 17:6 says, Grandchildren are a crown for the aged.”

Prayer: “Heavenly Father, __________ and __________ have brought their family before You today. I pray first of all for them as parents. I pray that You would give them grace and wisdom to carry out their responsibilities. And help them to be godly examples in their home. I pray that their home would be a place where each lives for the other and all live for You. And for __________ (the baby) today, we dedicate her to You. I pray that she would be raised in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and that she would be trained in the way she should go. And I pray that one day she would trust You as her own personal Savior for the forgiveness of sin. Amen.”
